

*Loud noise and echo
Concrete house full of sorrow
No one knows heaven but hell is right here*

*Calm, relaxed, motivated character
My body is a temple and my soul floats in an air
I am aware, God is taking my examination*

*Fellow officer said, mate you are illegal
Direction with no barrier to removal
I learn my lesson but I am not trouble maker*

*Life, It self is an adventure
Karma is our common religion
Keep moving, this is going to be excellent expedition*
